II. Purpose of Addendum

The purpose of this addendum is to modify the license of McBride Rosebush AFC to include serving persons with mental illness (MI) in addition to persons with developmental disability (DD), and to include the MI program in the facility's Special Certification.

III. Methodology

01/24/2020	Receipt of Request for Modification of the Terms of the Registration/License and Application for Certification .
01/24/2020	Receipt of statement from Licensee Designee attesting to training of all staff in CenTrain training for both MI and DD populations.
01/24/2020	Receipt of Program Statement including both MI and DD populations/programs.

IV. Description of Findings and Conclusions

Licensee Designee and Administrator Kent VanderLoon is a college graduate with over 15 years' experience working with persons with both mental illness and developmental disability. Mr. VanderLoon has demonstrated his ability to provide care to both populations in numerous AFC facilities licensed to McBride Quality Care, Inc.

The licensee submitted a Program Statement which includes both DD and MI programs, the Request for Modification, and the Application for Certification – modification noting the programs for both MI and DD populations.

According to training records maintained by the licensee, all staff in the facility have completed CenTrain Group Home Curriculum from CMH for Central Michigan, which includes training for both MI and DD populations.

V. Recommendation

I recommend that the license and Special Certification for McBride Rosebush AFC be modified to include services to persons with mental illness and/or developmental disability.
