ALLEGATION: The handyman who was also a direct care staff, sexually violated Resident A.

INVESTIGATION: According to the complainant on 05/30/2023, Resident A told the day program staff that a man invaded her privacy last night. She further stated she had sex with him but did not give him consent. The day program staff contacted Stella Nkwuzor, the licensee designee. Mrs. Nkwuzor stated she did not have a male staff, however, her handyman was on the premises. According to Mrs. Nkwuzor the handyman asked if he could use the restroom. She said he was in the home for 10 minutes while she was outside trimming the bushes. Ms. Nkwuzor contacted him, and he admitted to having sex with Resident A.

On 05/30/2023, I spoke with Mrs. Nkwuzor. Mrs. Nkwuzor stated her “handyman” admitted to having sex with Resident A. He believed it was consensual because he and Resident A are friends. According to Mrs. Nkwuzor the handyman had multiple text messages between him and Resident A.

The handyman sent me copies of the text messages on 06/06/2023. The handyman and Resident A started texting each other on 04/25/2023. The text messages were intimate, “hugs and kisses, going to a motel or truck stop” and trying to persuade Resident A to ask Mrs. Nkwuzor if he could take her out.

On 06/06/2023, I spoke with Resident A. Resident A stated she was “raped” by the handyman.

On 06/06/2023, I spoke with the recipient rights advisor, Ann Alexander. Ms. Alexander stated the handyman is in her data base as attending recipient rights training. I contacted Mrs. Nkwuzor. Mrs. Nkwuzor denied that the handyman was direct care staff (DCS). I also contacted the Workforce Background Unit. According to the Workforce Background Unit, Mrs. Nkwuzor had the handyman fingerprinted and hired him as DCS in 2019.

On 06/06/2023, I contacted the guardian and the resident’s caseworkers. They were aware that Mrs. Nkwuzor requested to voluntarily close her AFC license on 06/04/2023.

On 06/15/2023, I conducted an exit conference with Mrs. Nkwuzor. Mrs. Nkwuzor agrees that the handyman/DCS violated Resident A because she is an incapacitated adult. Mrs. Nkwuzor will not acknowledge the handy man was DCS because he never worked at the Colgate 2 Home. He worked at her other home which is also closed due to refusal to renew.

APPLICABLE RULE
R 400.14305	Resident protection.
	(3) A resident shall be treated with dignity and his or her personal needs, including protection and safety, shall be attended to at all times in accordance with the provisions of the act.

ANALYSIS:	Resident A's protection and safety was not attended to at all times. Mrs. Nkwuzor was outside trimming the bushes and the handyman/DCS entered the home and had sexual intercourse with Resident A. He should have known doing this was a violation because he had DCS and recipient rights training, and Resident A is an incapacitated adult.
CONCLUSION:	VIOLATION ESTABLISHED

IV. RECOMMENDATION

In lieu of submitting an acceptable corrective action plan, on 06/04/2023, Mrs. Nkwuzor forwarded the department, all caseworkers, and the guardians a letter stating she was voluntarily relinquishing the license; therefore, I recommended the license be voluntarily closed.
