ALLEGATION:

Licensee accepted a crucifix belonging to Resident A after his death.

INVESTIGATION:

On 8/11/26, I emailed Relative A who stated that they would provide additional information and send it to my cell phone. I then received a text message stating that video was attached showing that the licensee at first lied about having the crucifix and then stated that it was given to her as a gift. There was no video attached.

On 8/21/26, I received the video in which Relative A is at the licensee's home attempting to retrieve the crucifix. In the video Ms. Davison at first denies having the crucifix and then states that it was given to her because Relative A-3 never visited Resident A while he was at her home.

On 8/21/26, I attempted an onsite inspection at the facility. Ms. Davison was not home as she was at the memorial service for Resident A.

On 8/21/26, Ms. Davison called me and stated that Resident A wanted her to have the crucifix. She stated that Resident A was given the crucifix by Relative A-3 in 1978. She stated that Relative A-3 sent her husband and son to the home to retrieve the cross and it was the first time she had met them. She stated that she refused to give them the crucifix and they threatened to call the police. Ms. Davison stated that she contacted the police herself, and the police told her it was a civil matter and would not be investigating.

While on the phone with Ms. Davison, Relative A-1 arrived at the home and spoke with me. Relative A-1 stated that the crucifix was a gift from his sister 40 years ago to his parents and that his father wanted to give it to Ms. Davison. I then spoke with Relative A-2. Relative A-2 stated that he had text messages between himself and Relative A-3 in which Relative A-3 agreed to allow Ms. Davison to have the crucifix if that was her fathers wishes.

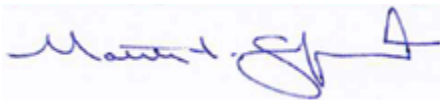

On 8/25/26, I contacted Relative A-3. Relative A-3 stated that after her father passed away, she sent her family to Ms. Davison's home to pick up the crucifix that she had made in 1978. Relative A-3 stated that she had sent a text message to Relative A-2 stating that Ms. Davison could have the crucifix if that was her fathers wishes but stated that she had changed her mind because she was under duress when she agreed to it.

APPLICABLE RULE
R 400.637	Handling of resident funds and valuables.
	(11) A licensee, staff, volunteers, members of the household, and their family members cannot accept, take, or borrow money, resident funds, or valuables from a resident, even with the consent of the resident.
ANALYSIS:	Interviews with Ms. Davison, Relative A, Relative A-1, Relative A-2, and Relative A-3 revealed that Ms. Davison did accept a crucifix belonging to Resident A after his death.
CONCLUSION:	VIOLATION ESTABLISHED

On 8/31/26, I conducted an exit conference with the licensee Ms. Davison. Ms. Davison disagreed with the findings of the investigation but agreed to submit a corrective action plan and return the cross to Relative A-1 who had been handling Resident A's business.

IV. RECOMMENDATION

A corrective action plan has been received and approved; I recommend no change in the status of the license.
