II. Purpose of Addendum

The purpose of this addendum is to identify changes that were made in the interior structure of the home.

III. Methodology

On January 4, 2010, licensee designee Helen Christine Hench submitted a letter advising of plans to both modify and renovate bathrooms to accommodate the aging population of the residents in the Laker home. Proposed plans, dated 05/06/2009, for bathroom modifications had been submitted to licensing in June of 2009.

During construction, the residents from the Laker home were temporarily moved to another one of the licensee's licensed homes known as the Blumberg home. On 03/26/2010, John McCaffrey, JARC's Director of Special Projects, submitted a letter giving notice that the interior construction at the Laker Home had been completed and on 03/24/2010 the Laker home residents moved back to the Laker home.

Renovations and modifications were viewed when an on-site inspection was conducted on 10/29/2010.

IV. Description of Findings and Conclusions

At the on-site inspection conducted on 10/29/2010, renovations and modifications were found completed in a half bathroom, the main bathroom off the hallway, the master bedroom bathroom and in the kitchen. The primary bathroom had been modified by replacing the bathtub with a barrier-free shower. The bathroom that is part of the shared resident bedroom that is the master bedroom at the back of the house at the West side had been reconfigured to enlarge the bathroom with a barrier-free shower, thereby modifying the floor space in the bedroom. The floor space for this bedroom was measured on 10/29/2010 with the dimensions of 14'6" X 13'10", offering 200 square feet, reflecting that the modifications resulted in a loss of 5 square feet from its prior 14'8" X 14', which were the measurements identified in the Original Licensing Study Report. The bedroom continues to have sufficient floor space for two residents.

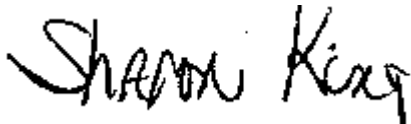

The kitchen had been renovated and reconfigured with new cabinets and countertops and removal of a counter-top stove that was replaced with a regular stove/oven.

A new counter had been installed in the half bathroom. New carpeting had been installed in the living room/dining room of the home; and at the inspection on 10/29/2010, the Program Coordinator reported that plans are in place to install new flooring in the kitchen and kitchen dining nook.

On 11/18/2010, a copy of a Certificate of Occupancy, dated 03/23/2010, was submitted as verification that the local jurisdiction of West Bloomfield Township had inspected and approved the alterations that had been made in the home before the residents moved back in.

V. Recommendation

Since modified master bedroom continues to have sufficient floor space for two residents and the other three bedrooms are unchanged, it is recommended that the licensed capacity continues for a maximum of six residents.
