III. DESCRIPTION OF FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS

A. Physical Description of Facility

Mill Creek Memory Care Community is located at 1600 Mill Creek Road Marquette, MI 49855. The facility is a new construct that is a single story structure consisting of 36 total beds. The facility is a memory care secured unit with 18 private/semi private rooms. Each unit has a private bath with walk-in shower, safety bars, individually controlled heat and air conditioning, large closet space and wall to wall carpeting. Common areas, including a great room with fireplace and several multi purpose rooms offer ample gathering space for group activities, families and friends.

This facility is barrier free and smoke free. The entire building is equipped with an approved fire suppression system. The facility also has 15 second delay locks on the exterior doors.

B. Program Description

The facility's program statement indicates that the facility intends to provide a quality alternative for older adults with various stages of dementia. Residents will not need the intensive services provided by a nursing home but could use some assistance with every day activities such as dressing, bathing, grooming and managing medications. Individualized personal care plans will be developed for each resident upon admission to the facility.

The facility will provide 24 hour supervision, three daily nutritious meals with snacks, and assistance with personal care, including administration of medications. The facility will serve individuals who are 60 years of age or older diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease or a related condition.

Mill Creek Memory Care will provide a secure, comfortable environment with specially trained staff providing the following services: monthly scheduled and spontaneous activities, and support groups and resources for families. In addition there is an adequate staff to resident ratio to ensure supervision and assistance for all memory care residents. There are designated activity areas that will be utilized for physical (such as exercise), and intellectual that includes word games, newspaper, reading, discussion groups and any activities that raise positive emotions such as reminiscing, visiting with children and telling stories. All activities provided are designed to maximize remaining skills and promote positive feelings in a failure free atmosphere.

The monthly service fee includes the following services: all utilities (except telephone) including basic cable, weekly housekeeping, flat linen service and personal laundry, reminders for meals, and activities, specially trained staff, emergency response system, diverse activities and outings, scheduled transportation, personalized fitness assessment and program. The residents will also have access to a full service beauty salon located on site.

Mill Creek residents will have access to health services, including physical therapy, to meet specific needs related to illness or injury.

Mill Creek will not manage any personal funds or valuables for residents. A letter of attestation is on file.

C. Rule/Statutory Violations

None.

IV. RECOMMENDATION
