ALLEGATION:

A resident is allowed to threaten other residents in the home.

INVESTIGATION:

On 1/6/25, I interviewed Resident B in the home. Resident B was unable to determine his length of stay in the home. Resident B denied having any safety concerns in the home and stated that he gets along with the other residents. Resident B stated that Mrs. Barnett would speak to them if there were problems. During the interview, Resident B appeared furtive and paced frequently. His speech was somewhat pressured.

I interviewed Resident C in the home. Resident C reported that he had lived there for 18 years. He stated that he enjoys the home and interacts well with the other residents. He denied having any safety concerns. He stated that in the past, if there were issues, Mr. or Mrs. Barnett would talk to them to resolve the problems.

On 1/9/25, I received an email from Resident A. Resident A stated that he did not wish to be interviewed in person. Resident A stated that he has not witnessed any drug use in the home, but believed that Resident B had engaged in drug use outside the home, around Thanksgiving. Resident A stated that there was an argument but Mr. and Mrs. Barnett were trying to calm things down. Resident A reported that there was a concern about other people entering his room when he is not at the home, but that the Barnett's had implemented security measures to prevent this from happening.

On 1/27/25, I interviewed licensee Annabeth Barnett by telephone. Mrs. Barnett stated that in the past, there was another resident who had engaged in substance abuse in the home and was posing as a danger to the other residents. She advised that she had to discharge this resident but was aware that Resident B had engaged in substance abuse with that particular individual. Mrs. Barnett advised that Resident B has a traumatic brain injury and may at times come across as intimidating, but denied that he has threatened anyone in the home. She posited that Resident A is put off by Resident B's posture and suffers from anxiety. She stated that the residents sometimes argue but it does not rise to a very high level. She stated that if things became dangerous, she would call the police and notify their respective case managers.

APPLICABLE RULE
R 400.1412	Resident behavior management; prohibitions.
	(1) A licensee shall not mistreat or permit the mistreatment of a resident by responsible persons or other occupants of the home. Mistreatment includes any intentional action or omission which exposes a resident to a serious risk of physical or emotional harm.
ANALYSIS:	Two of the three residents interviewed denied that anyone in the home threatens other residents. Resident A acknowledged that Mr. and Mrs. Barnett do address any interpersonal conflict and that there is a security measure in place to assuage his concerns. Mrs. Barnett reported that if there is a threat posed, police will be alerted, as well as follow up with case managers. Based on these factors, there is insufficient evidence to establish that Mrs. Barnett permitted mistreatment of residents.
CONCLUSION:	VIOLATION NOT ESTABLISHED

On 1/27/25, I conducted an exit conference with licensee Annabeth Barnett. I shared my findings and Mrs. Barnett agreed with the conclusions reached.
