The Wormer Residence

Dear Ms. Wiley:

Attached is the Special Investigation Report for the above referenced facility. Due to the violations identified in the report, a written corrective action plan is required. The corrective action plan is due 15 days from the date of this letter and must include the following:

- How compliance with each rule will be achieved.
- Who is directly responsible for implementing the corrective action for each violation.
- Specific time frames for each violation as to when the correction will be completed or implemented.
- How continuing compliance will be maintained once compliance is achieved.
- The signature of the responsible party and a date.

If you desire technical assistance in addressing these issues, please feel free to contact me. In any event, the corrective action plan is due within 15 days. Failure to submit an acceptable corrective action plan will result in disciplinary action.

Please review the enclosed documentation for accuracy and contact me with any questions. In the event that I am not available and you need to speak to someone immediately, please contact the local office at (313) 456-0380.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Edith Richardson".

ALLEGATION:

- On 11/22/2025, direct care staff (DCS) Kevin Person used inappropriate methods of behavior intervention with Resident A.
- During this altercation Mr. Person hit, slapped, punched, Resident A in the face multiple times and pushed her down. Resident A did not have any injuries.

INVESTIGATION: On 12/03/2025, I interviewed Resident A. Resident A stated Mr. Person asked her to put away the play dough and she refused. Resident A stated Mr. Person hit her and took her phone. Resident A stated Mr. Person kept her phone for 30 minutes. Resident A stated direct care staff (DCS) Sabrina Williams witnessed this altercation.

On 12/03/2025, I interviewed DCS Angela Richardson and Alazia Thornton. Ms. Richardson stated Resident A had her hands in her pants. Ms. Richardson stated that Mr. Person asked her to wash her hands and she refused. Ms. Richardson stated Mr. Person took Resident A's phone and engaged in a verbal confrontation with her.

Ms. Thornton stated she did not witness the incident because she was providing personal care to another resident. However, Ms. Thornton stated she heard the confrontation.

On 02/10/2026, I spoke with Guardian A1. Guardian A1 is Resident A's mother. Guardian A1 stated on 11/22/2025, she received a call from her daughter. Guardian A1 stated she could not understand what she was saying because she was crying and screaming. Guardian A 1 stated she called the group home and Mr. Person answered the phone. Guardian A1 stated Mr. Person was engaging in a verbal confrontation with Resident A. Guardian A1 stated she was told by the other unidentified worker on shift Resident A went to the bathroom and refused to wash her hands. Guardian A1 stated Mr. Person kept saying “yo momma” might allow this type of behavior but we don’t. Guardian A1 stated she understands that her daughter called Mr. Person the N word, hit him and threw her phone at him but she has mental health issues. Guardian A1 stated he did not do anything to de-escalate the situation. Guardian A1 stated she believes that Mr. Person somehow physically touched her daughter during this altercation but not to the extent as alleged. Guardian A1 stated her daughter did not sustain any injuries, but she did state she was sore for days.

On 02/11/2026, I spoke with Mr. Person. Mr. Person denied the allegations. Mr. Person stated, “I’m a big guy and if I would have touched her, she would be hurt.” Mr. Person further stated that he works for the Detroit Public School District and is a professional.

On 02/11/2026, I spoke with Ms. Williams. Ms. Williams stated Resident A went to the bathroom. Ms. Williams stated Resident A did not wash her hands and proceeded to go into the refrigerator. Ms. Williams stated Mr. Person wanted Resident A to wash her hands and she refused. Ms. Williams stated Mr. Person took Resident A’s phone and engaged in a verbal confrontation with her. Ms. Williams also stated Resident A threw her phone at him and spat on him.

On 02/11/2026, I reviewed Resident A’s individualized plan of service (IPOS) dated 06/12/2025. One of Resident A’s diagnoses is intermittent explosive disorder. The IPOS stated that she engages in “repeated and sudden” episodes of impulsiveness, aggressive violent behavior and verbal outburst. The IPOS did not address any interventions to address these behaviors.

On 02/24/2026, I spoke with Mr. Person. Mr. Person denied the allegation that he took Resident A’s phone. Mr. Person stated he was trying to get Resident A to wash her hands.

On 02/24/2026, I spoke with Ms. Williams. Ms. Williams stated Mr. Person did not physically assault Resident A.

On 02/24/2026, I spoke with the home manager Maurice Latham. Mr. Latham stated that he was contacted when this incident occurred. Mr. Latham stated he counseled Mr. Person.

On 02/24/2026, I conducted an exit conference with the licensee designee Julie Wiley. Ms. Wiley agreed with my findings.

APPLICABLE RULE
R 400.641	Resident behavior interventions.
	(1) A licensee shall ensure methods of behavior intervention are appropriate to the needs of the resident.
ANALYSIS:	Based upon the preponderance of evidence, the licensee did not ensure Mr. Person's methods of behavior intervention were appropriate. According to Guardian A1 on 11/22/2025, she heard Mr. Person arguing with Resident A. According to Resident A, Ms. Williams, Ms. Richardson and Ms. Thornton, Mr. Person argued with Resident A and took her phone. Furthermore there were no methods of behavior intervention in Resident A's IPOS. Even though Mr. Person's methods of intervention were not appropriate, arguing with Resident A and withholding her property, he did not hit, slapped, punched, Resident A in the face multiple times and pushed her down. An assault of this magnitude would cause injury. Resident A did not have any injuries and she is Caucasian. Mr. Person denied the allegations that he assaulted Resident A. Ms. Williams witnessed the altercation between Mr. Person and Resident A on 11/22/2025. According to Ms. Williams, Mr. Person did not hit, slapped, punched Resident A in the face multiple times or pushed her down.
CONCLUSION:	VIOLATION ESTABLISHED

ALLEGATION: Direct care staff Devonta Jackson swears at Resident B and the other residents.

INVESTIGATION: According to the complainant she called the group home to speak with Resident B. She stated that the staff who answered the phone identified himself as Devonta Jackson. She heard Mr. Jackson say, “Get in the house and answer the phone boy.” She stated Resident B found this statement derogatory because he said, “that is what I’m talking about, no respect.”

On 12/03/2025, I interviewed Resident A, B, C, D and E. Resident A, B and C stated Mr. Jackson swears at them.

On 12/03/2025, I interviewed DCS Ms. Richardson, Tina Jackson and Shayla Herring. Ms. Richardson and Ms. Herring stated that they heard Mr. Jackson swearing at the residents.

On 12/03/2025, the licensee informed me that Mr. Jackson quit after Thanksgiving.

On 02/10/2026, I called Mr. Jackson. Mr. Jackson did not return my call.

On 02/24/2026, I conducted an exit conference with the licensee designee Julie Wiley. Ms. Wiley agreed with my findings.

APPLICABLE RULE
R 400.681	Resident rights; licensee responsibilities.
	(6) A licensee, staff, volunteers, or any person who lives in the facility shall not do any of the following: . (f) Subject a resident to any of the following: (ii) Verbal abuse (iii) Derogatory remarks
ANALYSIS:	Based upon the preponderance of evidence, Mr. Jackson subjected the residents to verbal abuse and made a derogatory remark. According to the complaint Mr. Jackson told Resident A to “get in the house and answer the phone boy.” Residents A, B and C stated Mr. Jackson swears at the residents. According to Ms. Richardson and Ms. Herring, Mr. Jackson has cursed at the Residents.
CONCLUSION:	VIOLATION ESTABLISHED

IV. RECOMMENDATION

Contingent upon an acceptable corrective action plan I recommend that the status of the license remains unchanged.
