II. Purpose of Addendum

The licensee designee requests to remove the mentally ill and developmentally disabled populations from the license and serve only the general, physically handicapped, and aged populations.

III. Methodology

10/02/2026 – Contact – Document Received – Email from licensee designee requesting his license be updated.

10/06/2026 – Contact – Document Sent – Email to licensee designee with modification request template. Requested updated program statement.

10/07/2026 – Contact – Document Received – Modification request and updated program statement reflecting the facility serving the general, physically handicapped and aged populations.

IV. Description of Findings and Conclusions

Stone Home Partners 1 was originally licensed on 11/17/2025 to serve the aged, physically handicapped, mentally ill and developmentally disabled populations. The licensee designee has requested removal of the mentally ill and developmentally disabled populations and the addition of the general population.

The licensee designee submitted an updated program statement reflecting the requested changes to the populations served. The program statement also identifies that the facility provides respite services.

V. Recommendation

I recommend approval of the requested changes to the populations served, removing the mentally ill and developmentally disabled populations and adding the general population. The license will reflect the general, aged, and physically handicapped populations.
